

London International Biodanza Festival

21st to 23rd September 2018

Theme: Rainbow of Love

Biodanza is a tremendously powerful and tender dance form which allows you to touch your deepest core, and bring all your treasures into the movement of your life. Biodanza invites you to connect with and Be the fire inside your body, awakening your passion and pleasure in every movement, in every gesture and encounter, remembering what it is to live in natural ecstasy again.

There are no steps to learn and nothing complicated to do, and yet much to explore and experience inside yourself, in connection with others. Biodanza is a real opportunity to enhance your well being, to expand your heart, to feel enriched by Life and to meet others in a wonderful space of Joy surrounded by great music!
